ALEX STEWART AGRICULTURE COMPLETES PURCHASE OF SUMMIT INSPECTIONS

We are delighted to announce that Alex Stewart Agriculture Ltd is purchasing Summit Inspections Ltd.

Summit Inspections has been operating successfully in partnership with Mr. Paul Marsh to provide specialist gas free testing services on cargo vessels and vessels under construction. Stephen Holmes, who is known in the trade as Summit's Chemist, will join Alex Stewart's UK inspections team led by Glenn Forbes for gas testing field inspections.

We look forward to working with Stephen from the 1st of January, 2018 and on behalf of us all, I would like to warmly welcome him to the Alex Stewart International Group of Companies. All Gas Free Testing enquiries should be sent to chemist@alexstewartagriculture.com, for more information about Summit Inspections please visit www.summitgasfree.com
